

Students Seminar 2021

The Annual Students' Seminar of the Department of English, St Paul's Cathedral Mission College was held on 7th July 2021. The topic for the seminar papers were- "Women in Writing" The seminar saw wide participation by students and other faculties of the college. The program was judged by - Prof. Chaitali Mitra and Dr. Jaya Mukherjee.

List of papers presented in the seminar

1. Death blow at the infrangible domain of patriarchy: A study on Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni's Palace of Illusions and Mahasweta Devi's "Draupadi"-Shreya Guha and Renesa Sinha Roy (UG, Sem-2).
2. Emblems of Shakti: Mallika and Draupadi"-Oindrila Dey & Siba Serin (UG, Sem-6).
3. An attempt to explore the writing style of Sarojini Naidu-Jolly Amisha Das and Anismeeta Mondal (UG, Sem-2).
4. Women's Autobiographies and The Opportunity to Voice Their Plights-Oishi Halder, Nisha Mandal (UG, Sem-6).
5. "Because I carry ghosts in my wombs" : Anne Sexton and the voice of "Phantasm" in her Poetry-Anshuman Ghoshe and Srijani Mandal (UG, Sem-2).
6. Jane Eyre: A Novel of Self-discovery-Rupsa GonChowdhury & Pramiti Roy (UG, Sem-2).
7. Revisiting The Lanes of Literature Written By And Written On Women Down Through The Ages : An Insight On The Feminist Aspects Of The Writings Concerning Women-Snehadeep Arora (UG, Sem-4).
8. Feminism and Feminists in the Centenary Year of Nineteenth Amendment with Special Reference to Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie's "We Should All be Feminists"-Khusbu Jaiswal (PG, Sem-4).
9. Maya Angelou: Daughter of The United States- Sweta Bhattacharya (UG, Sem-2).

