

Students' Seminar 2022

The Annual Students' Seminar of the Department of English, St Paul's Cathedral Mission College was held on The topic for the seminar papers were- "Otherness and Literature". The seminar saw wide participation by students and other faculties of the college. The program was judged by Prof Chaitali Mitra and Prof Indradeep Bhattacharya.

List of Papers, Students Seminar, Department of English, SPCMC, 2022

	Name of the Presenter(s)	Name of the Paper
1	Agniswar Bhattacharya	Does Nature Exist? : An analysis of the role of Nature in literature
2	Snehadeep Arora	The Concept of the Sublime ; Man in Unity with Nature
3	Sweta Bhattacharya and Renesa Sinha Roy	Revolution in the lap of Nature
4	Oindrila Dey	Nature as depicted in The Waste Land and The Canterbury Tales
5	Subhankar and Angshuman	The harmony of "transcendental" nature in the poetic symphony of Swami Vivekananda and William Blake
6	Sourav Chakraborty	Role of "Nature" in Romantic and Gothic Literature
7	Rupsa Gon Choudhury and Shreya Guha	A Symphony Between Ernest Hemingway's The Old Man and the Sea and Jibanananda Das's selected poems
8	Tania Chakraborty	Importance of Nature in the poems of William Wordsworth and Samuel Taylor Coleridge.
9	Aditya Kumar Mishra	A Materialist Analysis of Nature through Literature
10

