

Report on Annual Students' Seminar on "Democracy at Crossroads: India Election 2024" organised by the Department of Political Science on 29.05.2024 held in an online mode

The Annual Students' Seminar of the Political Science Department was held on 29th May 2024 in the online mode. The programme began with a prayer followed by the welcome address by the Teacher-In-Charge Dr Sudipta Midday who outlined the importance of the chosen theme. An address was delivered by the Vice Principal Prof. Binayak Bhattacharya stressing on the relevance of the theme in the contemporary time. There were 12 student presentations from three semesters. The closing remarks from the Judge Dr Sutapa Rani Dasgupta of the Department of History provided valuable insights on the new trends and challenges facing democratic India. The faculty members Ruth Rhea Khan, Jhelum Ghosh, Biswajit Prasad and Kushal Chakraborty encouraged the students to embrace all opportunities provided by the College to develop their analytical and communication skills by actively participating in all departmental activities.

Picture Gallery

Poster for the event

From left: the Teacher-in-Charge, Dr. Sudipta Midday, IQAC Coordinator, Dr. Jaya Mukherjee and Prof. Ruth Rhea Khan of the Department of Political Science

Dr. Sutapa Rani Dasgupta, Department of History, the honourable judge of the event

Kaustav Chakraborty putting forward his point of view to the audience

Ritika Thapa putting forward her point of view for the audience

The current faculty of the Department- Prof. Ruth Rhea Khan, Ms. Jhelum Ghosh, Mr. Biswajit Prasad Hazam and Mr. Kushal Chakraborty in a frame