

Report on the “Youth Policy Conclave” organised by Observer Research Foundation (ORF) in collaboration with the School of International Relations and Strategic Studies, Jadavpur University on 12th and 13th August 2024 at Dr. Triguna Sen Auditorium, Jadavpur University, main Campus to commemorate International Youth Day

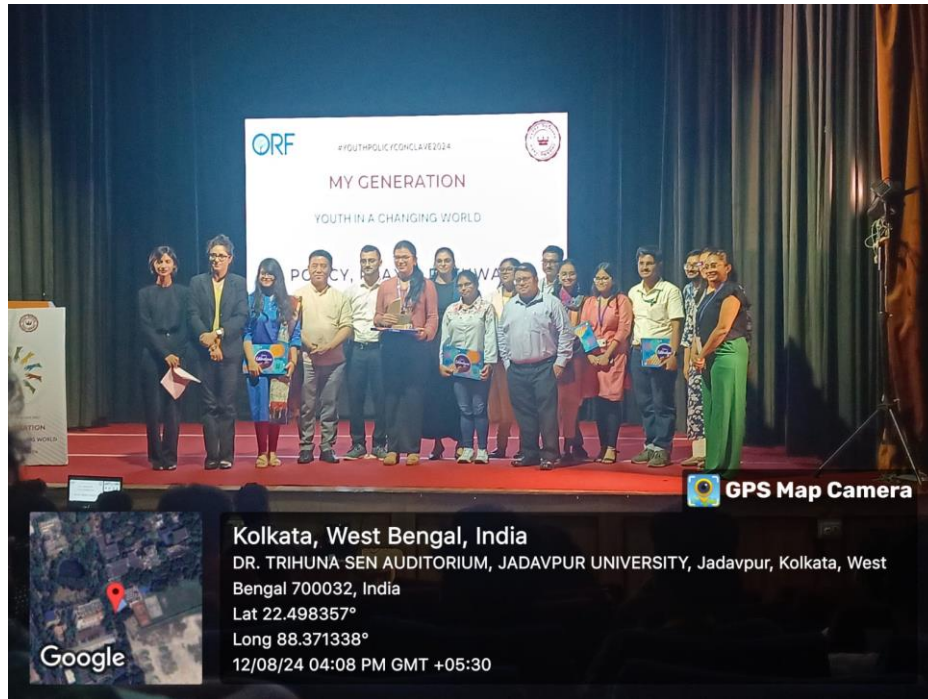

Anjan Dey, Sayan Das, Bipasha Halder, Rakhi Halder, Animesh Chandra Sarkar, Koustav Chakraborty, Sourjya Das, Anwasha Roychowdhury and Ritika Thapa from the Department of Political Science, SPCMC were invited by Observer Research Foundation (ORF) to participate in the 2-day Youth Policy Conclave in collaboration with the School of International Relations and Strategic Studies, Jadavpur University, Kolkata on 12th and 13th August, 2024. The Conclave took place at the Dr. Triguna Sen Auditorium, Jadavpur University Main Campus, Kolkata in observance of the International Youth Day on August 12th.

A special mention to Kaustav Chakraborty from Semester 2 who presented a paper on “Gender Gap in Education”. He shared the stage with other presenters from Presidency University, Jadavpur University, St. Xavier’s College and Rabindra Bharati University. Kaustav’s pertinent analysis of the problem of gender gap in education in India and his solutions were appreciated by the chair. The theme of the Conclave was "My Generation: Youth in a Changing World." The event was designed to provide a platform for young minds to engage in dialogue and share perspectives on how to shape the policies that impact our lives and the future of society. The students participated in various group activities that helped them to learn in depth about public policy formulation and implementation in India. This was a great learning experience for the students and the Department remains thankful to ORF for providing such opportunities to the students.
