

Report on the Awareness Programme on ‘The Enduring Legacy of Mahatma Gandhi in the 21st Century’ by the Department of Political Science along with IQAC in collaboration with Gandhi Smarak Sangrahalaya, Barrackpore on 26th September 2024

An Awareness Programme on ‘The Enduring Legacy of Mahatma Gandhi in the 21st Century’ by the Department of Political Science along with IQAC in collaboration with Gandhi Smarak Sangrahalaya, Barrackpore was organised on 26th September 2024. The events included an Exhibition, Quiz and Extempore Competition.

Students from several departments of the College participated in all three categories aimed at raising awareness regarding The Enduring Legacy of Mahatma Gandhi in the 21st Century.

Our college has been undertaking several programmes to build consciousness regarding national symbols and figures that are central to nation building.

This programme was organised to celebrate Gandhi Jayanti and honour his contribution to India’s Independence struggle.

Photo Gallery

The flyer of the event.

The participants along with the faculty of the college and Dr. Partha Ghosh, Director-Secretary, GSS, Barrackpore.

The participants along with the faculty of the college and Dr. Partha Ghosh, Director-Secretary, GSS, Barrackpore.

Dr. Anamitra Sarkar, Associate Professor, Department of History, SPCMC delivering the keynote address of the lecture.

The participants along with the faculty of the college, the Director-Secretary and the staff of GSS, Barrackpore visiting the exhibition organised in the College Auditorium.

The students of the Department of Political Science felicitating Dr. Partha Ghosh, Director-Secretary, GSS, Barracpore.

Paroma Mukherjee, Department of Political Science receiving a prize for answering correctly in the Quiz Competition.

Kaustav Chakraborty, Department of Political Science receiving a prize.